Aussie deer loves to eat rice, adobo

By James Lee Balle
Bureau Chief, Manila

STRAINE OF AUSTRALIAN DEER are known for a "foodie" taste when it comes to eating rice, adobo, and other Filipino dishes, a local deer farmer says.

He said that the deer, which are known for their ability to eat almost anything, are particularly fond of rice and adobo, which are the staple food of the Filipino people.

The deer farmer, who is a local resident, said that he has been raising deer for several years and has found that the deer are very picky when it comes to their food.

He said that he has found that the deer are very picky when it comes to their food, and that they will only eat what they like.

Malacañang turns down emergency powers

Malacañang turns down emergency powers

President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo has turned down the request for emergency powers from the Department of Agriculture, which is seeking to control the price of rice.

The President said that she does not want to use emergency powers to control the price of rice, as this would be a violation of the constitution.

She said that she would instead use other means to control the price of rice, such as increasing the supply of rice.

RP set to join UN protocol vs torture—Ermita

By Cynthia B. Salas,
Dante B. Salas,
and Lito Salas

THE GOVERNMENT is set to join the United Nations (UN) protocol against torture, according to a report from the Department of Justice (DOJ) on Tuesday.

The UN protocol, known as the Convention Against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, was adopted in 1984 and entered into force in 1987.

The protocol defines torture as any act inflicting severe pain or suffering, whether physical or mental, for the purpose of obtaining information or a confession, or for any other purpose.

The protocol also prohibits the use of torture in any circumstances, and requires states to take measures to prevent torture and to investigate and prosecute those responsible for acts of torture.

The DOJ said that the Philippines has already taken steps to prevent torture, including the passage of the Anti-Torture Act in 2002.

The DOJ also said that it is committed to ensuring that the Philippines is in full compliance with the UN protocol.

An embarrassing reality

THE FACT THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF THE PHILIPPINES IS NOT ABLE TO PROVIDE ADEQUATE PROTECTION TO ITS CITIZENS FROM THE RAMPANT CRIME RATE IS AN EMBARRASSING REALITY. THE GOVERNMENT'S FAILURE TO TAKE EFFECTIVE MEASURES TO REDUCE CRIME IS A MAJOR SHORTCOMING OF ITS POLICY. THE GOVERNMENT'S INACTION IN THE FACE OF THE CRIME RATE IS A MAJOR SHORTCOMING OF ITS POLICY. Murder of FHM girl, 3 friends 'solved'

Sayat event
in Zamboanga
hundreds of days

MANILA, Dec. 15 (AP) — A police officer in Zamboanga said the murder of a 19-year-old female high school student and her three friends was "solved" after a long investigation. The victim, identified as a student of a private high school, was found dead in a wooded area near the school. The police officer said the suspects had been identified and were in custody. The case had been a major news story in the region for several weeks.

Police officers and a group of people are gathered around a body covered by a white sheet, likely the victim of the murder.

DOH pressed to address Puerto's airport problem

MANILA, Dec. 15 (AP) — The Department of Health (DOH) is being pressed to address the problem of the airport in Puerto Rico, which has been a major concern for the local government. The airport has been the site of several incidents, including a recent explosion that caused significant damage. The DOH is working to ensure the safety of the airport and the surrounding area. The local government is also working to address the problem, but the DOH is being asked to take a more active role.

Dr. Richard Lamm and 'Bambi' Shapiro

MANILA, Dec. 15 (AP) — Dr. Richard Lamm and 'Bambi' Shapiro are the latest in a series of high-profile cases involving the Philippine government. Dr. Lamm, a prominent physician, has been accused of various crimes, including the murder of a prominent businessman. 'Bambi' Shapiro, a well-known socialite, has also been involved in several controversial cases. The government is working to investigate these cases and bring the perpetrators to justice.

US Catholics concerned over state of Church

NEW YORK (AP) — For the first time in the 1990s, the Catholic Church in the United States has a negative rating in a survey of its state.

The survey, by the Pew Research Center, shows that 53 percent of Catholics in the United States are dissatisfied with the state of the Church.

The survey also shows that 60 percent of Catholics

are dissatisfied with the state of the Church.

World leaders
 Global leaders agree on need for global reforms

Global leaders agreed on the need for global reforms at a meeting in London. The meeting was held at the G20 summit, where leaders from the world's major economies gathered to discuss global issues. The leaders agreed on the need for global reforms, including measures to address the global financial crisis and to promote sustainable development.

Marginalized health crisis returns after 43 years
 The health crisis that marginalized people have faced for 43 years has returned. The crisis is a result of the global financial crisis, which has led to a loss of jobs and income for many people. As a result, many people are unable to afford the healthcare they need, and the health crisis has returned.

Businesses pull money out, Berlusconi exits in swing
 Businesses are pulling money out of Italy, and Silvio Berlusconi has exited the government. Berlusconi, the Prime Minister of Italy, has been forced to resign after a vote of no confidence in the Italian Parliament. The vote was a result of a loss of confidence in Berlusconi's government, which had been accused of corruption and mismanagement.

PAI to revise interisland operations

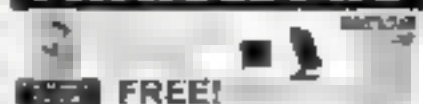

By Rex O'Rourke

PAI is expected to revise its interisland operations, a move that could significantly impact its earnings. The company, which has been struggling with declining profits, is looking to streamline its operations and focus on its core business. This move is seen as a strategic shift to improve efficiency and reduce costs. The interisland operations have been a major drain on the company's resources, and the decision to revise them is a sign of management's commitment to financial discipline. Analysts are watching closely to see how this move will affect the company's overall performance in the coming quarters.

Finding the right staff

As a business owner, you know the importance of finding the right staff. It's not just about filling positions; it's about finding people who will contribute to the success of your business. Here are some tips to help you find the right staff:

1. Define the job requirements: Before you start looking, clearly define the job requirements, including the skills, experience, and personality traits you need.
2. Post the job advertisement: Use a variety of sources to post your job advertisement, including newspapers, job boards, and social media.
3. Screen resumes: Review resumes to identify candidates who meet the basic requirements of the job.
4. Interview candidates: Conduct interviews to assess the candidates' skills, experience, and personality. Ask questions that will help you determine if they are a good fit for the job.
5. Check references: Contact references to get a better understanding of the candidate's work history and performance.
6. Hire the right person: Once you have identified the best candidate, hire them and provide them with the necessary training and support to ensure they are successful in their new role.

Fans watch out for KC, Ramiere

Reportedly

When Quincy Tarantino announced his intention to make a sequel to his 2007 film "Kill Bill," fans of the original were quick to point out that the movie was a parody of the Japanese samurai genre. Tarantino's response was to make the sequel even more of a parody, with a focus on the Japanese samurai genre. The movie is expected to be released in 2010.

IT'S A COMBINATION of chemical and electrical materials that "Laser Shaver" shaves with. This is a company, "Laser," that has not been here—acquired by John Deere. With the shaver, laser-like, ultrashort, short strokes, and Deere's technology.

From 1990 to 1992, the number of people in the United States who were employed in the health care industry increased by 1.5 million. This increase was due to a combination of factors, including an aging population, increased demand for health care services, and a growing emphasis on preventive care.

1. The first step is to identify the problem.

For the 2006 season, the average number of days of rain in the month of May is 10.5 days. The number of days of rain in the month of May for each of the 50 states is shown in the following table. Find the mean number of days of rain in the month of May for the 50 states.

“It’s hard to know,” says the author, “but the more I think about it, the more I think I should have been a writer.”

There have been four other times, however, when the committee reported on the subject, the last being in 1997. It had to admit to having failed to make any progress and the task remains on its agenda.

Q: I have been thinking about writing about the "new" world for some time now, but I am not sure if it is worth the effort. Can you help me decide?
